“ Our deepest sympathy to Grace's family. We have such fond memories of Grace and Cile at Rider College in 1949. She was always such a lady. She will be missed.

“ Not everyone is named appropriately, but truly, Grace was someone who received her name with uncanny foresight. Centuries ago, in its days of Latin origin, the word grace turned one's thoughts in the direction of persons who were beloved, persons who were held dear. As we fast forward to today, the word grace speaks to us of mercy, kindness, a status of favor to be blessed. And each of us who knew Grace for a week, a year or a lifetime was blessed. We were "Graced" with her presence in our lives for she was someone we loved.
