“ Grace was one of my first childhood friends, and we have remained good friends throughout our lives. As children, we named our dolls Candy and Penny, and Grace and Jim named their daughter Candy. We played together almost every day as preschoolers. The two of us planned to go to New York to dance and sing our way to Broadway. I'm Looking Over a Four Leaf Clover was going to be our audition number . As teens, we drove to school in my brother's old '37 Chevy. Grace had her license. I didn't, so she was my safety net. Those times were golden and full of wonderful memories. Grace's sense of humor and adventure made for fun and exciting times as we grew up. With Grace beside me , there was never a dull moment.

During the past number of years, we were able to get together once a year and reminisce. I got to meet Mike, their son, and hear about the rest of her family. I had known Jim since I was a child, but I got to hear about their amazing life. She and I shared our faith with each other, which had been planted when we were very young. Long term, Grace and I are singing the same song and will continue when we meet again.
