“ Extending deepest sympathy to Greg's family and friends at this difficult time. His devotion to his alma mater and dedication to the many students he met over the years truly earned him the title of "Mr. LVC." How appropriate and deserving to have one of the new buildings named in his honor! Greg was a fine man, and those who knew over the years are fortunate indeed. John Shott ('81)

“ I knew Greg when I came to LVC in 1988 ... such a nice man and he always made you feel welcome ... I knew his daughter Amy from when I worked at the Hershey Country Club and she always spoke well of her father ... my prayers go out to Amy, Greg's family and the larger family at LVC ... a great man has been lost but I am sure he's making people feel welcome in Heaven now :)
