

Gwendolyn C. Stoner

August 17, 1959 - May 23, 2025

Gwendolyn C. Stoner, 65, of Fredericksburg, passed away at home surrounded by her family. She was the wife of Terry L. Stoner. They celebrated their 47th wedding anniversary on April 8th.

Born in Lebanon on August 17, 1959, she was the daughter of Robert Walborn of Fredericksburg and the late Elesta (Spitler) Walborn. Gwendolyn graduated from Northern Lebanon High School with the Class of 1977. She worked at Lebanon Medical Billing with the Department of Veterans Affairs. She was a member of St. John's Lutheran Church, Fredericksburg and the Fredericksburg American Legion. Gwendolyn enjoyed gardening, cooking, going to Dewey Beach in DE, and spending time with her family.

In addition to her husband and father, she is survived by her sons: Lucas L. husband of Bekka Stoner of Fredericksburg and Cody L. Stoner of Lebanon; grandchildren: Daeya, Amren, Adaline, Cassidy and Josephine; great grandchild Briar; brothers: Robert B. Walborn of Jonestown and Gregory L. Walborn of Akron; and sister Pamela D. Sigler of Jonestown.

Funeral services will be held at 1:00 p.m. on Wednesday May 28, 2025, at Kreamer & Lum Funeral Home & Crematory, Jonestown. There will be a visitation one hour prior to the service. Interment will follow at Cedar Hill Cemetery, Fredericksburg.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Penn State Cancer Institute, MC CA530, P.O. Box 852, Hershey, PA 17033-0852.

“ Gwen was a great childhood friend of mine. We used to through a sheet over the wash line in her backyard making a make- shift tent where we would play with our dolls; play the old maid card game and drink lemonade that her mother would make for us. Great memories.
