

Harlan F. "Bunny" Bausher

April 21, 1935 - February 13, 2019

Not wanting to wait 52 years for the Eagles to win another Super Bowl, Harlan F. "Bunny" Bausher, 83, of Jonestown, decided his time was up and passed away on Wednesday, February 13, 2019, at the Hershey Medical Center with family at his side. He was the husband of Nancy L. (Strause) Bausher. On March 29th, they would have celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary.

Born on Easter Sunday on April 21, 1935 in Reading, PA, Harlan earned the nickname "Bunny," a name he would carry with him the rest of his life. Bunny loved his family fiercely and was a loyal friend to those fortunate to know him. The son of the late Arthur and Ardell (Long) Bausher, Bunny worked as an over the road truck driver for the former Branch Motor Express and later for New Penn and ACR Metal Roofing.

Bunny was a proud Philadelphia Eagles season ticket owner for over 30 years and took great joy in bringing his family and friends to games. As a part of old 700 level at Veterans Stadium, Bunny was beloved by his fellow Eagles fans. He will be sorely missed at Lincoln Financial Field this upcoming season.

In addition to his wife he is survived by his daughters Deborah A. Brisan of Pottsville; Denise L., wife of Robert Daldo of Jonestown; and Dana L., wife of Brian Bernal of Spokane, WA, as well as sister Patricia Turner of Reading.

And as much as he loved the Eagles, nothing could compare to his love of his grandchildren. His love and sense of humor will be remembered fondly by his six grandchildren: Shawn Gundrum, of Arlington, VA; Jennifer (Daldo) Helms of Cape Coral, FL; Steven Gundrum of Reading, PA; Brent Daldo of San Diego, CA; Christopher Brisan of Pottsville, PA; and Sydney Bernal of Spokane, WA. Bunny was also the proud great-grandfather of 11. He was preceded in death by his sister Judy Condos.

Bunny used to say that he checked the obituaries every morning to make sure his name wasn't in it. What a surprise if he reads the paper today.

Services will be held at the convenience of the family.
