“ I met Fritz, as we called him, at Shearer’s Mobile station in the Annville square. Shearer’s is where you hung out if you wanted to be in the thick of things. I was 15 or 16 when I started going in there. Fritz was 6 years older than myself. He drove a little red 63 or so Falcon sprint, with a high performance 289 with a four speed. He had a mop of thick blond hair and sort of walked like Popeye. I thought he was cool as hell. After a short time Fritz took a liking to me and sort of took me under his wing. He took me to the races at Silver Springs track. We went to NASCAR races and upstate to the mountains. I was there for J.J and Josh being born. He always welcomed me into his home and was more to me than family. I could go on and on. At the end of the day, I wanna say I’ll miss you Brother. I’m hopeful that I’ll see you on the other side and that The Lord will let us be able to see each other again. Love you Fritzer.

“ I did not know Fred well, but he and his sweet wife , Lori, made a big difference in my grand daughter's life.

She will miss him, as we all will. Thank you Fred for making her feel so special.
