“ Harry and I were classmates at Northern Lebanon. My deepest sympathies go out to you and your family. May God give you the comfort and peace that you seek. It is times like this that what faith we have is put to the test. We know that we must accept Harry's passing and give thanks for the life he lived. As sad as it will be, you will always have the memory of him to hold in your heart. Hopefully, the comforting words from family and friends will help you through this difficult time.
