

Hazel I. Bross

January 23, 1929 - March 28, 2021

Hazel I. Bross, 92, formerly of S. Lebanon Twp., passed away on Sunday, March 28, 2021 at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, and was welcomed into her Eternal Home with her Savior. She was the wife of the late Richard L. Bross, who passed away in 2016. They celebrated 66 years in marriage.

Hazel was born in Kulpmont, Northumberland County, on January 23, 1929 to the late Ernest and Ruth D. (Miller) Herrington. She was a 1946 Bethel High School graduate. She had worked at Bayer Aspirin in Myerstown and was a salesperson for Avon. She retired from the Officer's Club at the Gap as a hostess, where she also was a waitress. Hazel attended Lebanon Valley Bible Church, New Hope Bible Church, and most recently Faith Baptist, when she was able. She was a fan of the Phillies, the Eagles, and Penn State. Hazel had also been a volunteer for ten years at The Good Samaritan Hospital. She enjoyed spending time with family, reading, doing crossword puzzles, and loving her dogs.

Surviving is a daughter, Marsha K. and her husband Craig M. Messinger of Myerstown; a granddaughter Joy and her husband Justin Victor; great grandchildren Nadia, Anya & Judah Victor. Hazel is also survived by several nieces, a nephew, and sister-in-law, Blanche Herrington. She was preceded in death by her brothers, James, Roy, Claude, an infant brother Ernest, and Paul Herrington.

Funeral services will be held on Friday, April 2, 2021 at 11AM from Faith
