

Helen S. Hollinger

December 12, 1932 - October 9, 2017

Helen S. Hollinger of Lifeways At Messiah Village, Mechanicsburg, PA. passed away Monday, October 9, 2017.

She was the daughter of the late Raymond and Rhoda Stutzman of Johnstown, PA. She was born December 12, 1932.

She is survived by her husband Richard and daughter Anne Louise Zimmerman and her husband Eric and grandchildren Nicole, Leah and Michael of Canandaigua, New York.

She was preceded in death by her parents, brothers Earl and Blair, sister Charlotte Frantz and sons Mark and John.

She was a graduate of Johnstown High School and Juniata College.

Helen was a secondary public school teacher in the West Shore and Cumberland Valley School systems, Cumberland County, PA. and did research and development for the National Institute of Dyslexia, Chevy Chase, MD.

She served in many leadership roles as a member of Harrisburg First Church of the Brethren and in the Presbyterian (USA) Churches in Dallas, PA., and in Kingstown, PA. and Colesville, MD. She was an active volunteer in community public schools and in social service organizations in the greater Harrisburg and Wilkes-Barre areas and in Juniata College alumni activities.

In retirement Helen and Dick enjoyed traveling in the Middle East, Europe and throughout the United States. Many of their trips were with Elderhostel, now Road Scholar, pursuing their hobbies of bird-watching and photography. They also enjoyed many wonderful times with family, relatives, and friends.

A memorial service will take place in the Messiah Village Chapel on Saturday, October 14, 2017 at 2:00 PM. A visitation will take place prior to the service from 1-2 PM.

In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to the First Church of the Brethren Living Witness Fund, 219 Hummel Street, Harrisburg, PA 17104 or Messiah Lifeways At Messiah Village Endowment Fund for Benevolent Care at 100 Mt. Allen Drive, Mechanicsburg, PA 17055.

Kreamer Funeral Home and Crematory, Annville is handling the arrangements.
