“ I'll always remember Henry as my good friend I met in our school days. He ALWAYS smiled and liked to joke around, he was always so full of happiness and it definitely was felt when you were around Henry. I lost touch with him after school but reconnected on Facebook. He'd definitely offer help to anyone in need, and still no matter what he was going through, was there for whomever needed his help. Definitely made a good impression that I'll never forget, and knowing he had so much support and friends and family that cared for him too, is wonderful. He had a heart of gold Henry sure did. Was definitely one of the good guys and will be missed sadly that he left us all. Just writing this, I can imagine him smiling that smile if his and I know he's in Heaven now, looking over us, shining his caring smile. Rest In Peace and enjoy your new journey Henry, my friend then and from above.
