

Herbert Bradley "Brad" Reigel

December 21, 1946 - August 26, 2018

Herbert Bradley Reigel "Brad" passed away on Sunday August 26, 2018 peacefully at home with his loving wife by his side.

Born on December 21, 1946, he was a son of the late Harry and Hazel (Luckenbaugh) Reigel. He grew up in Brooklyn and then attended Central Dauphin High School. Brad retired as a Teamster from TMI. He was an accomplished singer, he had a three-octave range and had a voice like Johnny Mathis. He was also a self-taught drummer who many compared him to Gene Krupa. Brad was a lead singer/drummer in several bands, including Track 4. Brad was of the Catholic faith.

In addition to his wife, Gloria, he is survived by son Bradley (Shellie) Reigel, daughter Angela Wisnesski, stepson David Christensen (Michelle), grandchildren, Hunter, Skye, and Levi Reigel, Heather Hughes, and John Kenenitz, step grandchildren, Sienna and Gage Christensen and 2 great grandchildren. He also has a sister, Cherilyn True. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his brother, Harry Ronald Reigel.

Services will be private. Interment will be in Gravel Hill Cemetery, Palmyra. In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to a charity of one's choice.
