“ Irene has been on my mind during this holiday season and a Google search found this obituary. We were the first family to be blessed with her as my children’s nanny. She instilled a love of nature through her kind and gentle care. Family was so important to her and we missed her so deeply when we left PA. Much sympathy to Tina and Randy.

“ Our hearts are so heavy to learn of her passing. What an angel here on earth she was! Irene lovingly took care of our children two days a week for almost 20 years. She took them out into nature and shared her love of all living things, teaching three boys patience, nurturing, and the details and beauty of trees, insects, and flowers. She was so gentle, kind, and patient with children and everyone she met. We are such a fortunate family to have been touched by her in so many ways. Our sincerest condolences to Randy, Tina, Arlene and all of her family. With love, The Muraika family

“ I was saddened to hear of her passing. I had gotten to know Irene from GHUMC first with the Be in the light dinners where she helped with. Then got to work with her and her sister sorting all the items for the white elephant area for Christmas Market. She was always so helpful and showed me ways to do things easier. I will miss her helping out and seeing her smile. Glad you are in heaven rejoicing. - Tiffany Rettew

“ Irene was such a gentle soul and always had a gracious smile on her face. Her and Arlene were always together and always willing to help the church and the church family anytime and in anyway they could. She is with the Lord, and that is a cause for celebration, and all the memories make me realize how fortunate I was to share some time with her on this earth. - Tony Rose

“ I got to know Irene through Gravel Hill's Wednesday night dinners where she made the best desserts - I especially loved her carrot cake. She spent many hours at Gravel Hill's Bazaar organizing the "White Elephant" area. Irene had a fashion sense that made her unique. I will miss my friend. Jean Foutz
