“ Dear cousin Marie, Marlene, Mark and family,

We were so sorry to hear of your loss of your husband Ivan. Ivan has passed through the gate that each and everyone of us will pass through at some point in our future. Ivan's journey in this life has ended and as Christians we all believe his eternal life with our Lord has begun. It is a difficult time when we lose a loved one and you need to know that you have the love and caring of your family, friends and relatives that are supporting you and your family in their thoughts and prayers.

Our sincere condolences.
