“ I had the best times with Jack and Rene and their 2 boys on several trips and Jack was always telling the best and funniest stories. The memory when we went to Washinton DC when Kennedy was assassinated and we stood in line for 12 hrs in freezing cold to view his casket and Jack thought an elderly woman fell so he lifted her up and carried her across the street to find out she bent over as she lost a shoe and was looking for it. we had many laughs over that for years. that was Jack always helping others. RIP and now he is with the love of his life again.

“ I will remember my Uncle Jack as one of the best storytellers ever. He could take a mundane daily event and make it hilarious with his words and mannerisms. I will also remember him as a man who loved his family immensely. Rest in peace Uncle Jack.
