“ I am so sorry for your family's loss. Jim and I were in Fredricksburg Elementary together and shared the same bus in and out of Monroe Valley. Jim was always fun loving and friendly; I am glad to remember him that way. My heart grieves with you.

“ I remember Jim as a hard working, and fun loving man. One of the best with his sense of humor!

There was so much I learned from him and our circle of friends. No one was as detailed as he was when doing anything. He set a standard that was well beyond average, and strived to make anything usual even better. To this day I still reminisce about all of the good times we had together with the people I talk to.

I am so sad to hear about all of us losing him. He left a legacy that very few people seldom get the privilege of knowing a person such as he was.

To the Davis family, I am deeply sorry for your suffering.

You have raised an extraordinary son, and brother! My memories with him are truly blessed and will always be cherished!

Jim, I hope you are looking down at us waiting to tell us more stories and share your signature laugh that was always contagious. We all miss you Brother!

“ I met Jim about 9 years ago loading in Chicago on a Sunday night. I was a young guy pretty new in trucking, he was so friendly and nice to talk to. I saw him many more times over the next year and we became friends and talked quite frequently. My heart was broken when I heard the news of his passing this morning. My father and I recently started rebuilding a truck similar to Jim's rig and we received lots of inspiration from him and his positive spirit. I'm so disappointed that I won't be able to share more of the rebuilding stories with him. But I know he is looking down from above. My deepest condolences to the entire family. Many of the guys I worked with had met Jim over the years and are deeply saddened of the news. Lots of thoughts and prayers from Illinois and Iowa.

“ This kinda hit me pretty hard when I heard the news. Jim and I graduated together and were friends through out high school. He was always fun to be around and always had a smile on his face. I sit here and think all the way back to hanging out at the Renaissance fair in 7th grade when we went on a trip with the school, then being on the snowball court together in 10th grade and graduation day. This brings tears to my eyes knowing he was taken way to soon. I'm sure he is in a much better place but he will be missed here on this Earth. I know you are enjoying your time as you are in the presence of our Lord! Enjoy your time up there, and look forward to seeing you again one day.

“ My brother was one of a kind! His main love was his rig when he built it from scratch. I can see him pulling into the driveway with it...OMG! What a wreck..lol We would torment each other to the point of no return, lol, but we had fun together just the same. He always came to me for advice when he was troubled...& I always gave him reassurance. He had a big heart & would've given the shirt off his back for ya. I'm going to miss his analogies of the simplest things in life. I know he's in a happy place & I will never forget him. Love You Man❤️

I used to come back to the house when he was building his truck. The smile on his face would light up a room when he talked about that truck. I believe he painted it black cherry just like his tool box. So many great times with him!
