

James C. "Jim" Enders

July 27, 1949 - September 26, 2017

James C. "Jim" Enders, 68, of Jonestown, passed away on Tuesday, September 26, 2017, at WellSpan Good Samaritan Hospital. He was the husband of Janice E. Fidler Enders. On February 24th, they celebrated their 44th wedding anniversary.

Born in Gratz on July 27, 1949, he was the son of Margaret Reed Enders of Linglestown and the late Clarence Enders. Jim retired after 30 years with Three Mile Island where he had worked as an Auxiliary Operator. He never met a stranger and always will be remembered as a jokester. He loved his oldies movies and music and especially spending time with his grandchildren. In addition to his wife and his mother, he is survived by his son James C. Enders, Jr., and his wife Karen of Ephrata; daughters Tracey D. Dennis of Wernersville and Tamatha J. wife of Melvin Finkey of Cleona; brothers Delmar Enders of Elizabethville and Larry Enders of Brazil, IN; sisters Bernita Holt of Wildwood, NJ and Alverta Etzweiler of Halifax; and grandchildren Courtney and Zachary Finkey and Joshua and Benjamin Dennis.

Funeral services will be held on Monday, October 2, 2017, at 11:00 a.m. at the Kreamer & Lum Funeral Home & Crematory, Rt. 72 & Camp Meeting Rd., Jonestown. A viewing will be held one hour prior to the service. Interment will follow at the Pleasant View Cemetery, Sinking Springs.
