“ We are saddened to hear that Jim is no longer with us. A wonderful man, father, and husband who had a great passion for life. Time spent with Jim, our talks...our laughs together, will always hold a special place in my heart.

“ To Jim's family, your dad provided many great memories for our family! The antics in which he and my father engaged are still stories we tell at the dinner table - stealing the bell of the tuba out of dad's station wagon was probably my favorite prank - not to mention putting Uncle Earl's house up for sale when he went on vacation. I remember one Christmas when a certain poster of Rachel Welch appeared on your front door along with a sign that had some sort of reference to Huey Duck's Tavern. It took Jim and Sue quite a while to discover why traffic was moving so slowly on Main Street that morning. And I loved how Dad always made sure to buy Jim JFK paraphernalia - he knew how much Jim loved the President (not so much)- lol. Jim, you had such a zest for life! I was blessed to have been one of his students, he taught me to play clarinet well - a gift I use to this day. Thanks for the memories good and faithful servant.

My favorite story was the Christmas light debacle! Mr. Huey was an excellent teacher and an all around great person. He even got me my first job working at the funnel cake stand over the summers when I was a teenager. I loved hearing his stories about my grandfather and my aunts. He'd always call me 'Suzi' or 'Marcy' because he taught all of us at one point. In my frustration with his constant forgetting of my name, I once gave him a JFK coin. He gave me a look and busted out laughing. Thank you to the many years of laughs, wisdom, and kindness. My heart goes out to the whole Huey clan during this difficult time.

*“ Jim was the best and kindest guy you could ever meet. From him teaching me music lessons to us working together making those funnel cakes. Great times I will never forget. I will always remember his smile and his laugh.
My sincere condolences to his family.

*“ One of the best. His dedication to the students he taught and his incredible talent will always be remembered. I can hear him playing Moonlight Serenade right now. He must be playing in front of God.
