

James Michael "Mike" Morrissey

February 1, 1949 - December 14, 2021

James Michael "Mike" Morrissey, Jr., 72, passed away at home December 14, 2021. He was a loyal son to his father, Jim Morrissey.

Mike had a favorite childhood memory of a trip across the country with his two younger brothers, Dave and Dan, and their beloved grandfather, Iren S. Light. He is also survived by his sister, Grace. Mike cherished his daughter, Shannon, and son, Jimmy. He was proud of his two grandchildren, James, IV, and Olivia. He was blessed with many uncles, aunts, and cousins. Mike enjoyed many years with his companion, Cindy Church, and her son, Jedidiah Dykstra.

Mike was a man of many interests and talents which drew him to numerous clubs and organizations throughout his life. He served as past president of the Sunset Lions, where for many years he helped organize a time for Santa to hand out treats to the children of the community. Mike grew up in the family oil business and retired after running his own company. He was known to help many, and those he encountered in life did not remain a stranger. He was quick to share a smile, a laugh, and often Shuey's Pretzels.

“ I am hoping that this reaches the correct family as with the masking and such I was never able to see his face. I worked at the station at 7th and willow st in Lebanon where if I have the correct Michael he would come in on a regular basis to catch a bus to get used to the system. He would have tons of questions and was always impressed how I always had the answers. I always told him that is what they pay me the big bucks for and he and i would chuckle. If this is the correct Michael, he always wore a hat on his head and his arms were covered up, always assuming it was to protect from sun exposure. He would speak of growing up and his working days. I enjoyed listening to his stories and when he would come into the station, because he would always tell me how hard I worked, how knowledgeable I was at my job and much he appreciated to see me and get to chat if he wasn't bothering me. I always told him that he was never bothering one of my favorite riders and that I had time for him always. If this is the correct Michael, he was an awesome man that I have been looking, because I think I have one of his hats here in a bag that was left on a bus. I was anxiously waiting to see him to ask him if it was his hat. Maybe I now know why he has not been to the station in a while.

To the family, I am so sorry for the loss. He was an amazing man that I for one will miss!! I ask God grant you all peace and comfort that only He can provide. May you feel his presence around you always. If this is the wrong Michael, I still wish the peace of the Lord on the family and that he comfort and keep you in the days ahead. When you want to feel him near just put your hands over your hearts and listen he is there.
