“ He was one of the greats. I wish I had taken the time to visit with him more as the years went by. I am still practicing part-time here in Utah. May he be blessed for eternity.

I am a patient ofhis and I was ever so shocked when I called the office and heard the message that dr had passed away. He has touched so many lives to leading people to a restoration with their health. I pray that the grace of God be with the family during this time. I'm sure he will be missed by many people.

“ Dearest Carol, Matt, Mike and your families. Our heart breaks for all of you. Having Jimmmy in our lives was a blessing. He was a wonderful man who will be missed by all who knew and loved him. We have fond memories of him. Tom as a brother has many, but his fondest is when they were around 18 yrs. old building and designing their custom choppers. Mine is watching him interact with his 5 grandsons and I will always remember his funny laugh. We pray for all who mourn his passing. God Bless, Tom & Tammy “ Praying for you as your family mourns and experiences the unexpected loss of Jim. Jim was gracious to all he met. A mechanical genius, with humility, shared his talents with anyone who asked his advice. His Love for family, wit, ingenuity, and smile were second to none! Rejoicing, knowing that Jim knew where he would spend eternity.
