“ No matter the number of years that may have passed, the memories of time spent with my Aunt Babe and my cousins (especially Janie and Judy) will always make me smile. Aunt Babe was generous with her time, her encouraging words, her food :) and her love. Thank you Aunt Babe, I will cherish and love you always. Your niece, Mikki

“ Dear Shaffer Family members and sister Grace: The Women's Guild of Christ Church express their sympathy to your family. Babe was a special and dedicated member of Christ Church. The children of the church and those who worked with her will never forget the good times, her smile and willingness to help. We will never forget her special desert.
