

Janet Naomi Fogelsanger

December 9, 1925 - January 12, 2025

Janet Naomi (nee HandsheW) Fogelsanger 99 went beyond the curtain of time on Sunday, January 12th and is now rejoicing with her Lord Jesus and those who have already gone on before her.

She was born in Shippensburg PA, on December 9, 1925, the daughter of the late John L. and Katherine E. (Perry) HandsheW. She was the wife of the late Robert L Fogelsanger, who had gone ahead on January 5, 1993.

Janet attended a one-room school in Middle Spring near Shippensburg for 8 years and was a 1944 graduate of Shippensburg High School. After graduating from high school, she attended Shippensburg State Teachers College for one year. She then worked in the clerical field at Bell Telephone in Harrisburg and several Shippensburg area businesses. She also helped her husband in his business, Fogelsanger's Auto Service, in Shippensburg and was a homemaker. Janet was also a youth Sunday school teacher for a number of years. After moving to the Annville PA area, she worked at the Annville Cleona High School cafeteria, retiring in 1993 after which she substituted where needed in the district. She attended the Christian Fellowship & Missions church in Rexmont PA and always enjoyed spending time with family and friends. In later years she also enjoyed going on trips with the Annville senior citizens, volunteering at an assisted living home, and giving small tokens of love to those she met. Her beautiful smile was always an inspiration. She was a "people person" and truly lived for others. Janet also enjoyed reading her Bible daily and listening to the tape ministry of William Branham.

She is survived by a son, Edward Fogelsanger (Judy) of Annville, three grandsons, David Fogelsanger (Crystal) of Cleona, Timothy Fogelsanger (Cynthia) of Lebanon, and Andrew Fogelsanger (Dawn) of Annville, seven great-grandchildren, five step great grandchildren, and six step great-great grandchildren. In addition to her husband, Janet was preceded in death by her infant daughter, Elaine Fogelsanger.

Funeral services will be held on Thursday, January 16th at 11 a.m at the Kreamer Funeral Home, 618 E. Main St., Annville, PA. Viewing will be one hour prior to the service. Livestreaming will begin at 11AM, those wishing to view can go to www.kreamerfuneralhome.com for the livestreaming event.

She will be laid to rest by her husband and daughter's side at the Spring Hill Cemetery in Shippensburg at the convenience of the family.

Her son and his wife would like to thank the staff at The Lebanon Valley Home and the Masonic Village Hospice team for their loving and compassionate care of Janet.

In lieu of flowers, an expression of sympathy may be made to Christian Fellowship & Missions, P.O. Box 51, Rexmont, PA 17085.

“ *To Ed, Judy & family.
Jan was a very dear friend of mine for many years. The last words that she wrote to me in a letter were,
' I will meet you on the other side ' Jan knew where she was going and looked forward very much to that day when she would be in her 'Forever Home'.
God bless you Ed & Judy for the wonderful care you gave to your dear mother.
I have so many good memories of being with Jan, Ed & Judy.
Memories that are very dear to me.
So for now Jan, from your Canadian friend, look for me for one day i will meet you on 'that other side'
