

Janet Walter

May 23, 1944 - September 28, 2012

Janet Walter, 68, of Toms River, went to be with Jesus on Friday, September 28, 2012, in Myerstown, PA. She passed with her family around her telling her of their love. Janet's life was in service to Jesus Christ, to her family, and to countless men and women and boys and girls throughout the world. She was a teacher in Jackson School District, and served the Lord in mission work in Philadelphia, China, several African countries, India, and South America. She was a beloved member of First Baptist Church in Toms River. She would want this message to be to all who read: if you have not trusted Jesus Christ as your Savior, you can do it today! She is survived by her brother and sister-in-law Gary and Joan Walter of Myerstown, PA; sister-in-law Barbara Walter of Goldsboro, NC as well as nephews and nieces, grand nephews and grand nieces. A memorial service will be held on Saturday, October 13, 2012, at 11 AM at the First Baptist Church of Toms River. Visitation will be one hour prior to the service. In lieu of flowers, donations can be sent to the Open Door Pregnancy Center 533 Lakehurst Road Toms River NJ 08755 or the Bible Club Movement 201 Granite Run Drive #260 Lancaster, Pa. 17601

“ Dear Gary and Joan, I am so sorry to hear of your beloved sisters' passing. I remember being at a table with Janet at some event. The event I don't remember but the conversation with Janet about her adventures in China was mesmerizing. Kevin and I left that evening marveling at her courage, her humor, her willing obedience to share Christ's love and bloom where she was planted. What a welcome she must have received in Heaven. May God comfort the hearts of you and your family here on Earth. In our Savior's compassionate love, Cindy and Kevin McGill
