“ Though my heart is sad, I take great joy in knowing that I will see Janice again, in glory. May the peace of God, which passes all understanding, be with all of us who are grieving and remind us of the wonderful truth that Janice is home.

“ Janice will be truly missed. She never gave up her fight to survive. She is the most courageous, gracious, bravest, and loving young lady I know. Lila was the love of her life. I know she is no longer suffering and she is smiling down on her daughter and mother. We will always miss you . Aunt Gail

“ Janice was the most courageous person I know. She had a will to survive and she never gave up. Lila was the love of her life and she will be forever blessed. I will pray for Lila and her family. Janice will be so missed but I know she is in heaven with Jesus. She is healthy again and no longer in pain. God Bless her family and especially Lila :). All my love, Lynnette
