“ Lucila, what a beautiful tribute to your Abuela! I will certainly be generous with my smiles today. I understand your sadness; I was very close to my grandmother who was full of smiles and laughter who died in 2001. She was my matron of honor in my wedding and held on to her life until she met my first baby, Maddie. She literally died the next day I still miss her and think of her every day. My heart is wrapped around you today!Darcy

“ Although i did not know her that well I felt I did by all that was told to me by Barb,John & Tiff but you dont have to know someone well to hurt when they pass because the people you care for are hurting. I DO KNOW she was a good woman and loved her family very much and although she is no longer on this earth to share that love with them they will feel it everyday in a gust of wind a ray of sunshine even in a downpour of rain. She will always and forever remain with you all in heart,spirit and soul and while today you will cry for your loss there will come a day when you cry from laughter from memories as you sit around the table telling funny stories of things you all experienced with her either as a family or individually. My deepest regrets that I cant be there to pay my last respects but I will be thinking and praying for you all in your time of loss and grief. Go with God Jeanette and RIP

“ Safely Home I am home in heaven, dear ones; oh, so happy and so bright! There is a perfect joy and beauty in the everlasting light. All the pain and grief is over, every restless tossing passed; I am now at peace forever, safely home in heaven at last. There is work still waiting for you, so you must not idly stand, do it now, while life remaineth” you shall rest in God’s own land. When that work is all completed, He will gently call you home; oh, the rapture of that meeting oh, the joy to see you come! R.I.P we will miss you but never forget you !!! Barbara & John “ R.I.P MOTHER & GRANDMA Do not stand at my grave and weep, I am not there, I do not sleep. I am in a thousand winds that blow, I am the softly falling snow. I am the gentle showers of rain, I am the fields of ripening grain. I am in the morning hush, I am in the graceful rush Of beautiful birds in circling flight, I am the starshine of the night. I am in the flowers that bloom, I am in a quiet room. I am in the birds that sing, I am in each lovely thing. Do not stand at my grave bereft I am not there. I have not left.
