“ *My deepest sympathy to the Dabich family at this time of their loss of such a wonderful woman.
I have wonderful memories of her being our choir director at St Mark's UCC when I was a child. I remember her as such a beautiful woman always dressed to the nines. She was strict with us, but also caring and proud when we did well.*

*Sincerely,
Brenda (White) Lantz*

“ I have many fond memories of Jeanne as our second mother and Aunt while spending time in her inviting home when our parents served overseas. The delicious meals and cookies she prepared over the holidays where we stayed during college breaks, watching her favorite shows on TV with her while watching her fighting sleep to finish the daily crossword puzzle, noshing on braunschweiger and endless Serbian delicacies while growing the wheat in her kitchen at Christmas, getting the best haircuts and perms from her before returning to school or my job, and, of course, hearing her sing with our mother, Ruth Anne-her surviving sister, in church and at concerts that our dad conducted. I didn't have the opportunity to grow up in Lebanon where I was born, but the times I spent there with Jeanne, her family and my many cousins, made me feel like I was always welcome. She will be greatly missed and like for others, my life is richer for having been loved by her. I am honored to carry her name as part of my own forever.
