“ Although it was many, many years ago that I met Jeanne (I was a teenager) I have very fond memories of the time we spent together at boat races. She loved her Boxers too, and she would bring them to all the races. She had two Boxers, and one of them in particular that I remember, was Ginger. I'm not sure if I have the right Jeanne Smith.... but when I look at the photograph, I still see the same beautiful, vibrant woman that I remember from the 60s, in the pits, with her waders on. Please forgive me if I don't have the right Jeanne Smith, and you can have the funeral home delete this post off of this tribute wall. That being said, they're writing an article on drivers from the 60s and 70s, and someone contacted me about the article. So I'm remembering all of those wonderful people that I met, as a teenager. Thank you and my condolences to Jeanne's family, she was an amazing woman.
