To Mike, Aunt Louise, my dear cousins Jan, Chuck, Jolene, daughter Jennifer and your extended families,

Since hearing the news about Jessie I've been shocked and deeply saddened, and pour out my sympathy to you and others who were near and dear to her.

The Lord knows I will always hold close to my heart great admiration and fond memories of Jessie. When I think of her I recall past fun times growing up as children especially during family events, working together and having private talks in passing, recently connecting on Facebook to exchange holiday cheers, and sharing common values and beliefs which I will always treasure.

Jessie always displayed an honest, kind, sweet and warm personality to all those who had the privilege to meet and get to know her. I feel blessed that she will forever be a member of my family.

We would like to extend our sincere condolences and heartfelt sympathy to everyone, and we pray you all can receive the peace that passes all understanding, knowing her spirit will rise and live on for eternity.

*With love and affection to all,

“ My dear sweet friend Jessie, you left our circle of four way to soon. I miss you so much already, and this just does not seem real to me. We were supposed to get together for lunch, however this Covid-19 has delayed it, and now this will never happen. So Esther, and Shirley, and I will continue as three and never forget you. You will be seated along side of us when we go for lunch. We will remain friends forever till we all meet again in that peaceful place we call Heaven. Please look for us when we get there, so we shall become a group of four once again. RIP my sweet Jessie. My sympathy to your family and especially Mike who has lost his beloved wife who loved him dearly. May God be with him and guide him thru life as he begins this new adventure with family and friends.
