“ I had become friends with Jo-Ann through her brother Jay. First met her in the 70's, then after we moved away didn't stay in contact till I got hired at JBT back in 1989. We got to reconnect. Then I moved away again and lost contact again. When I came back to the area in 2017 I was hoping to run into her again but never did. We always made each other laugh. She was always on my mind and in my heart. She will be missed by many. RIP Jo-Ann
