Found this among items my mother had saved from by childhood. Joan's mother, Martha L Symanowicz Smith, was my grandmother's half sister.

“ I was privledge to know her as a nurse and friend. We would come in and out of our lives always picking up where we left off. She was beyond excellent as a nurse. Her warm caring ways were amazing to watch. The absolute hardest worker I've ever known. Always willing to give and work harder if her kids needed anything. During the last year she needed some help which was hard for her to ask for. I was given the the gift of Joan on those days and we would talk laugh and share together. Her wisdom was way beyound her years. She said to me once " I prayed for MS and got ALS". With dignity, love and grace she embraced the disease and fought her hardest battle. My "weekdays with Joan" gave me blessings, love and grace that I will be eternally grateful. She will always be my american idol and star. She loved Joe so much and just hated to leave him. Her children and grandchildren were a joy for her. They were her heart and soul. Can't wait for the day when I see her again. All of our lives were bettered because she was given to us and we will all meet again.

“ A Better Place Sheâ€™s in a better place right now Than sheâ€™s ever been before; All pain is gone; sheâ€™s now at rest; Nothing troubles her anymore. Itâ€™s we who feel the burden of Our sadness and our grief;. We have to cry, to mourn our loss, Before we get relief. We know weâ€™ll reconnect with her At the end of each lifeâ€™s road; Weâ€™ll see her cherished face again When we release our earthly load. Sincerely, Nancy Miller Thomas (LVAMC retiree) (formerly from Lebanon County, PA)
