“ John was a very fine gentleman and I consider myself fortunate to have known him. He was soft spoken and rarely made a negative comment about anything or anyone. But if he believed that someone was not done in a proper way he would quietly share it with a person he respected. It is unfortunate that his wife was not at his side for more years of marriage because he did love her and mentioned her often. For many years the two of them made fund-raising subs in the kitchen of Christ UCC Church for the church. John would sometimes help Dorothy make them prior to going to his job. After she died, John continued to attend the Annville Senior Community Center to lessen the times spent home by himself. He enjoyed being with the folks at the Center. John served as the treasurer of the Center for many years. John was a good man.
