

John A. 'Al' Granger

June 17, 1925 - January 31, 2016

John A. "Al" Granger, 90, formerly of Maple Street, Annville died Sunday, January 31, 2016 in the Lebanon Valley Brethren Home, Palmyra. He was the husband of Mary K. Galebach Granger with whom he would have celebrated their 70th wedding anniversary this April. Born in Lebanon on June 17, 1925, he was the son of the late Harry and Anna Donmoyer Granger. He began his career as a meat cutter/butcher at Buehler Bros. Market and then Food Fair Grocery Store in Lebanon before working at Granger's Provisions, Annville for over 25 years. He then retired from Laudermilch Meats in Annville. Al was a U.S. Air Force Veteran of WW II, a member of Fontana Christian Fellowship Church where he served on the Church Board, as an usher, and helped to serve the congregational meals and was also a member of the Rotary Club and V.F.W. both of Annville. Al enjoyed hunting, golfing, and playing pinochle but most of all his greatest joy was spending time with his family. Surviving in addition to his wife are two daughters Sandra wife of Harry Bachman of Annville, Barbara wife of Randy Gingrich of Lebanon, four grandchildren Amy Bachman, Lisa Bachman, Kelly O'Boyle and Nicole Stansfield, seven great grandchildren Trey Blanding, Alexis O'Boyle, Payton & Carter Stansfield and Emily, Rachel and Sophie Buse. He was preceded in death by four brothers Lester, Harry, Russell, and William Granger, and a sister Anna Dower. Funeral services will be held on Monday, February 8, 2016 at 11:00 AM in the Lebanon Valley Brethren Home DiMatteo Worship Center, 1200 Grubb Road, Palmyra, PA 17078. A viewing will be held on Monday from 9-11 AM prior to the service. Interment will be held in South Annville Cemetery with Full Military Honors. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the Lebanon Valley Brethren Home, Good Samaritan Fund in his memory. Kreamer Funeral Home and Crematory, Annville is in charge of arrangements.
