“ John, May you Rest In Peace. I have so many great memories. The house in Pleasantville every summer. I remember going on camping trips with grandma and grandpa Steckbeck. You and Lori had a green dodge pickup and the small camper behind it. I remember you coming to Camp Strauss and crawling under the building to help my dad jack up the foundation and you let him keep the big jacks. I remember riding my four-wheeler to your house with three friends piled on it in the blizzard of 1996. You and Lori let us thaw out and dry our clothes by the wood stove. You helped me replace the head-gaskets on my first car. I'll never forget all of our family Christmas's together and the shirts that you, Lori, Cameron and Rebecca wore for so many years: Don't stop Believing. You'll be forever missed by many.
