

John E. 'Jack' Carbutt

June 7, 2016 - June 7, 2016

John E. "Jack" Carbutt, Jr. of Palmyra passed away Tuesday, June 7, 2016, at his home. He was the husband of Romaine Trautman Carbutt and the late Janice E. Ulmer Carbutt who passed away in 2005. Born in Philadelphia he was the son of the late John E., Sr. and Eleanor S. Saylor Carbutt. He graduated from Wilson High School in 1952 and Temple University. He proudly served his country by joining the Navy and achieving the rank of 2nd Class Petty Officer. Jack was an Architectural Engineer for American Stores Company in Philadelphia where he retired after 35 years. He was a member of the Gravel Hill United Methodist Church, Palmyra. He was a very active member of The Lebanon Valley Brethren Home where he had called his home for over 20 years. He had a real love for computers and photography and was a member of the wood shop in the community. His greatest joys were his five grandchildren and his soon to be great grandchild. Surviving in addition to his wife are his two sons, John E. Carbutt, III and his wife Suzanne of Collegeville, Jeffrey E. Carbutt and wife Lisa of Phoenix, AZ and his daughter Jill E. wife of Jay Beaver of Chester Springs, five grandchildren. Jack's wishes were that a private service be held at the convenience of the family. Contributions may be made to the Good Samaritan Fund at The Lebanon Valley Brethren Home 1200 Grubb Road, Palmyra, PA 17078, in Jack's memory.

“ Oh, I am so sad to hear about Jack's passing! I admired this gentle, kind man. He was a wonderful person, full of smiles, love for his family, and for those friends who surrounded him at LVBH. The world has lost an angel, but heaven has gained an angel of peace, love and friendship. An added note to Jack, maybe when I see you in heaven, my hair will be red.
