“ *John, dear John
You were always a wild and crazy guy I met many moons ago when doing electrical inspections for Blatt & Myers. You always made the job site brighter (pun intended) when you were there. One thing for sure, the guy upstairs just got himself one heck of an electrician (and drummer!). No more short circuits buddy!
Condolences to the family- and prayers that some day cancer will be no worse than the common cold. God speed my friend!
