“ I had the great privilege of working with John for a number of years at Ingram. John was a devoted Father and husband. I always enjoyed his stories about taking the boys hunting. He truly was a great man and someone who will missed by many. Prayers for the entire Michaels family.

“ Prayers and thoughts to the family during a difficult time. John and I worked together at Dollar General and he was a very talented man and constantly talked about his family, whom he loved so much. May he rest in peace.
