

Joseph H. Progin

January 15, 1932 - June 10, 2009

Joseph H. Progin passed away peacefully on June 10, 2009 at the Lebanon VA Medical Center with his loving family by his side. He was the husband of Marilyn Blauch Progin, and celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary last October. He was born to J. Henry and Addie Clouser Progin on January 15, 1932 in Lebanon. He served in the U. S. Air Force during the Korean War. Joe was the first employee of Quaker Alloy Casting Co. In addition, he worked for the Lebanon Steel Foundry. For the last five years, he delivered flowers for his granddaughters at Lebanon Valley Flowers and Gifts in Lebanon. In addition to his wife he is survived by his sons Pete husband of Cindy of Lebanon, Tom husband of Linda of Toledo, OR and Steve husband of Peggy of Lebanon; his daughter Lisa of Fredericksburg; nine grandchildren, six great grandchildren; a brother Bob Progin and a sister Marion Greenawalt both of Lebanon. Graveside services will be held on Tuesday June 16, 2009 at 10:30 a.m. at the Indiantown Gap National Cemetery. Donations in memory of Joseph can be made to the Lebanon VA Medical Center Hospice and ICU. Joe was known as the Bird Man of Lebanon. He would tell everyone to "Keep bird-watching" Arrangements are in the care of the Kreamer & Lum Funeral Home & Crematory, Jonestown. www.kreamerlumfh.com

PDF Printable Version