“ Memories and thoughts in honor and celebration of my sister, Joy

Joy was loyal. She loved her family and always showed up for gatherings. On my visits to PA, I could always count on her to be there – even when it wasn't so easy. She was a loyal wife to Charlie over the years and took good care of him thru his illness. She supported her kids in a kind and loving way. She loved telling me all about her kids, grandchildren and great grandchildren!

She was a hard worker. As a young farm girl, she had chores galore on the farm and throughout her life she seemed to carry on that attitude of getting the job done.

Joy was religious. She had an unrestrained love for and belief in Christ. I think it was her faith that kept her going when it would have been easy to give up.

She was my beautiful big sister! Although she was 12 years older, I have fond memories of her as a beautiful teen age girl 'going out' to church events (all dressed up) and playing the trumpet in the Holiness band.

Over the last few years, as we got older, we seemed closer than ever. I remember when she and our sister, Carolyn, visited me in California, and, although she enjoyed site seeing, her favorite thing was to simply sit in my backyard and enjoy the warmth of the sun. She sent me the most loving birthday cards with personal notes and, several times, mentioned how she wished to be here – enjoying the sunshine.

Joy was our family historian. She had an incredible memory! My brothers, sisters and I could always go to her for family background information. Recently, over lunch, we were talking about how old Grandma Blouch was when she passed away and we had decided she was 94. But then Joy spoke up and told us not only that

Grandma was 90 but backed that up with the specific day she died...

That was my sister Joy – who I will miss and always cherish in my memories!! May God rest her soul.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. As a teenager, I visited your home often as a guest of Tim. My strongest memory of your mother is that she made amazing crockpot lasagna. My mother didn't even own a crockpot, so I thought this was the neatest thing (and it was delicious). It was very kind of your parents to open up their home to me, and I am very grateful to have known her, if only for a short time.
