

Juanita Kathryn (Moses) Sherk

February 13, 1926 - March 20, 2016

Juanita Kathryn (Moses) Sherk February 13, 1926 - March 20, 2016 Mrs. Juanita Kathryn (Moses) Sherk of Foxdale Village in State College, Pa., died Sunday, March 20, 2016. Born Feb. 13, 1926, Mrs. Sherk was the daughter of the late Marguerite Josephine (Downing) Moses and Isaac Earl Moses. When her parents were ill, she and sister Eleanor and brother Paul were placed in a children's home before living in the home of her grandmother, Florence Downing. Mrs. Sherk also spent part of her childhood in the Geist family home and attended public schools in Eureka, Kansas. She was a graduate of Emporia State Teachers College in Kansas. She taught elementary school music in State College and later in Sylvania, Ohio. She also directed youth and adult church choirs in State College and Toledo, Ohio. Mrs. Sherk was a member of State College Presbyterian Church. While a resident of Foxdale Village, she pursued her interest in art and organized a recorder group that performed for Foxdale Village residents. She is survived by two of her sons, Douglas L. Sherk (and wife Colleen) of Vinton, Va., and Christopher T. Sherk (and wife Sue) of Rock Hill, S.C.; three grandchildren, Joshua A. Sherk (and wife Christine) of Phoenix, Ariz.; Erin R. Kinkel (and husband Greg) of Phoenix, Ariz.; and Ashlee R. Sherk of Blacksburg, Va.; and two great-grandchildren. She is preceded in death by her husband H. Dennis Sherk and her son Anthony D. Sherk. The funeral will be 11 a.m. Tuesday, April 5, 2016, at the Hill Lutheran Church in Lebanon, Pa. Memorials may be made to the State College Presbyterian Church music and choir programs, 132 W. Beaver
