“ Judy was a very special person, her contagious laugh, her smile, always having a kind word to share. So many great memories of 4H riding. She will be fondly remembered and sadly missed. My prayers extend to all of her family.

“ Dear Clint, David and Margo, My family and I have so many fond memories of your mother. Ken being beat up as a child, (she was a Tom Boy then), riding horse back with her and she would take my children on carriage rides and sang many songs, they still remember them. My Dad and she called each other UGLY ,in such fondness. I can hear them shout back and forth. She was the greatest mother on Grant street. You can see I could write a book. Loved her! Barbara L.
