“ Sad to hear of Judy's passing. Many fond memories of visiting her and her sisters at their parents farm. Will always remember the "Taylor" girls' dinosaur skit at the family reunion of July 2017. Love you Judy and will miss you.

“ Times like this are hard. Judy's passing has opened a flood of memories for me of visiting Bangor and staying with you. Your Mom and Dad were so good to us. And all of you are a testament to their values and love. Judy certainly would pass those values and love on to her children, Nancy and I send our love.

“ Mrs. Murray was my 5th grade teacher at Harrisburg Christian. She was the sweetest teacher I had in elementary school. I can truly say she was a teacher that cared about her students no matter your race or background and it was grounded in her love for the Lord. My condolences to the Murry family and I pray that we all prepare ourselves to see Jesus and Ms. Murray when Jesus returns.

“ Don, Sean, Erin, Taylor...i am so devastated to hear this. Judy was one of my dearest friends even though I moved so far away. She was a precious light to the world and now praise the Lord, she is with Jesus. My heart breaks for your whole family right now, but I know you all know we will all see her again and rejoice. I pray that the Lord softens your grieving time, and holds you close to His heart for comfort. All my love and condolences to each of you.

Judy was a special sister and best friend. We shared our lives a couple days each week and gave each other comfort and support. She was so special and planned all our adventures as sisters. She came home every summer to spend time with family. The list is so long in the ways she impacted our lives. Will think of her daily and love and miss her always. Lenore
