“ Dear Kenny, Lindsey, and family, I would like to extend my sympathy to your family. When I first heard about this, I had so many memories flood my mind of Julius in Sunday School. May God wrap His big arms around you. You are in my thoughts and prayers. Julius meant a lot to me. I really enjoyed having him in Sunday School. (Hobe Sound Bible College is also praying for you too!) ~Love, Emma

“ Dear Kenny and Lindsay, We want to extend our deepest sympathy. I know the heartbreak you feel is unbelievable, but lean on His arms and He will comfort you through these first hardest days and in the years to come. You will always have a hole in your heart but God can fill it with His love and comfort. If you ever need to talk, we are here for you. Praying that our wonderful Lord, who does all things well, will comfort you and give you peace at this time.
