“ Mike and I came to Faith Fellowship Church in 1991. That is where we met Junior and all the family. Junior was quieter, but he had a smile that said more than what he spoke. We got to know and love him from the many church picnics and fellowship dinners. The thing that touches my heart about Junior was his love to play the guitar up front in church with the musicians. He played his guitar even until he went into the nursing home. He was such an icon in our church as he sat up there every Sunday and played the music that meant so much to him. He will be sadly missed. Our love and prayers to Catherine, Barb and Larry, Kenny, Josh and Michelle, and all of the family. Marty and Mike Barth
