“ I will always remember aunt Jane at our Thanksgiving get togethers playing “Over the River and through the woods, to grandmother’s house we go” on the piano. What a wonderful reunion in heaven that must be with aunt Jane seeing Ma and Pa and her other family members! Love you aunt Jane! ❤️

“ Your mother was one of the mothers who kept us straight in the neighborhood. All our mothers may be gone now .. But Mrs Jameson and the others will forever be in our hearts. What a great neighborhood we had.....

“ Jill, Dean, Jack, Kim - I have many very fond memories of your mother Jane, or as I called her "Mrs. Jamison" living next door. It felt like we all lived in one big house with a wall in the middle. We could hear each other's conversation, smell what we were having for supper from one side to the next. Grateful for all the rides to school in the pouring rain or frigid temps. Grateful for her understanding (could have been far worse) when we left her car drift into the side of the house while we were attempting to wash it. She always had the best cars. She was always so kind to me. Grateful that she was well stocked with Chef Boyardee pizza box mixes. That was fancy food back then. Grateful for another mom figure, energetic and yes often feisty, just steps outside my back door. I have thought of her so often these past 50 years. She was a very special lady. My sincere condolences to you.
