“ Over 40 years now, no matter what the circumstance, Ken was always there to do whatever he could to help. I could not have asked for a better father in law, or friend. Words cannot express the void, that your loss will leave in our life. Until we meet again, rest in peace.

*With much love and appreciation,
Tom*

It is always hard for me to know what to say when a family suffers a loss. such as the unexpected death of Mr. Ken. I found a nice poem with a sweet sentiment. This verse is called Heaven's Light, and it written by Ron Tranmer.

*The sun shines down on us
and gives us warmth and light
Then when the day has ended,
it disappears from sight.*

*Though we're left in the darkness,
we know the sun's not died,
for it is shining brightly
on the world's other side.*

*So it is when one we love
comes to their end of days.
They just go to the other side,
to shine their loving rays.*

*That's why heaven is a place
that glows beyond compare.
The lights of those who've left us
are brightly shining there.*
