“ *He was like a brother a good friend a good hunter. A fantastic shot
In all the years I was his hunting guide all at the battle river lodge
We had great great times together. I will miss him very very much

“ On our journey through life, we meet many people, but none has effected my life in such a positive way as Ken Fair. In 1974 Ken had a dream of starting his own foundry, which became Cornwall Aluminum Foundry, With Ken's great business instinct, and outstanding employee's, Ken achieved his dream in a few short years. Ken Was my employer, mentor. and a true friend. God bless Ken Fair and his wonderful family. Deepest Sympathy. Richard Zeigler
