“ I did not know Kim, but I know her niece, Nicole. I do know Kim's story. I cannot imagine how her family is going through this right now. I wish there were a way to send hugs that you all could feel. I wish you could actually hear your friends & families memories and experiences with her. I cannot imagine losing someone right now. I hope you, somehow, can feel the love being sent to you. I hope you all are able to find some peace and grace at this most difficult time- blessings to you.
