Also, his longtime caregiver, who he appreciated so much, Jamie Wine.

Kingsley fought a battle with MS for most of his life, but was very sharp and intelligent, trusting in the Lord to fill his life with friends and family who would love and care for him.

Kingsley worked for the state medical examiner, Dr Homley in Wilmington, Delaware for 30 years as an accountant. He was a member of Faith City

Family Church in Wilmington, where he enjoyed playing the organ and was the accountant for many years. He enjoyed reading, writing, and playing Suduko.

A graveside service will be held at a later date.

“ I just realized that Kingsley King was with the Lord. I wondered why I didn't hear from him on Facebook for such a long time. For 16 years I was the Director of The Bread Of Life Ministry from Faith City Family Church in De and we had services at the Sunday Breakfast Mission in Wilmington. For a short time Kingsley was part of that ministry using his musical gift from the Lord. May the Lord comfort his family and may they always remember what a loving person he was. “ To a Mighty Warrior and brother in Christ. he never sought the limelight but his gift of music and wisdom of living through trials , he could lift your spirits with a special word or when he played music on the organ. You will be missed but i will see you again Jim Cooper
