“ During the summer in our neighborhood Kitty and Don hosted a Pit party at their home. We all brought food and sat around the fire sharing the latest news and stories about our lives. This happened over many years and was a sweet time that leaves happy memories. We'll all be missing Kitty a lot but look forward to seeing her again at Heaven's Gates.

“ Thirty years ago Kitty picked out of a group of women and made me her friend. She was like an older sister. She was loyal, loving, interesting and fun. She and Don were like family. My sons called her AUNT KITTY. She will be missed.
