

Kyle R. Fisher

June 23, 1950 - February 11, 2024

Kyle R. Fisher, 73, of Lebanon passed away Sunday, February 11, 2024 at his residence.

Born in Lebanon, he was a son of the late John C. Fisher, Sr., and Mary (Boyer) Fisher. Kyle graduated from Penn State University with his bachelor's degree in political science and retired from First National Bank of Fredericksburg where he was a trust officer. Kyle enjoyed spending time with his friends golfing, fishing, playing cards and meeting at the Quentin Tavern on Fridays. Kyle was a good cook. Some of his specialties were chicken cordon bleu, chowder, and chocolate chip cookies.

He is survived by his daughter Katelyn, wife of Keith Craley of Sellersville; two sisters Lynn Edkin of Lebanon, and Kathleen, wife of Norman Zalesky of Brockton, MA; numerous nieces and nephews who loved him. Kyle was preceded in death by two brothers John C. "Buzz" Fisher, Jr., and David Fisher.

Memorial services will be held on Monday, February 19, 2024 at 11AM from Kreamer Funeral Home & Crematory, Inc., 618 E. Main St., Annville. Interment will be private. A visitation will be held from 10AM until the time of his service at the funeral home.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Heart Association.

“ I will always remember Kyle sitting at the south end of the dining table at the cottage on Belmont Lake in Ontario. My memory of his sharp wit and humor will always bring a smile to my face.
