“ Larry was a great guy. After we became adults and got involved in our own families and lives we didn't see each other very often, but when we did Larry was always very welcoming. He was a wonderful cousin and we will miss him. You are all in Linda's and my prayers for comfort, strength, and peace.

“ I know very few people as courageous as Larry. In spite of all the pain and suffering life threw in his path - he plowed forward - not only smiling but laughing. Knowing him was a privilege - seeing his determination was inspiring. Aunt Elizabeth and Uncle Allen
